Josh Beideck

Josh Beideck began his career with MPPD on May 4, 1998 as a part-time electrical apprentice that soon turned into a full time position. Over the years he held the positions of Load Management Supervisor, Meter Supervisor, and in 2017 Beideck became the Engineering Manager. In 2021 he was promoted to Engineering/Operations Manager, the position he held up until May of this year. Beideck has recently accepted the General Manager position at Twin Valleys Public Power District located in Cambridge. Congratulations to Josh on 25 years with MPPD and best of luck at TVPPD.

Brandon Jacobs

June marks 25 years of service for Brandon Jacobs. Jacobs began working for MPPD on June 1st, 1998 as an Apprentice Lineman and in 2001 earned the title Journeyman Lineman. Jacobs' current position is Overhead Crew Foreman, which he has held for the last four years. Jacobs oversees the daily duties of the Overhead Crew such as building new services, upgrading existing services, and replacing worn or broken poles. Thank you Brandon, for your years of service to MPPD.
